Manager Smith summarized the following:

Time Warner Cable moved its customer service offices from 1511 Cravens Blvd. in the downtown area to 19780 Hawthorne Blvd. Suite 102 Torrance CA 90503 at the end of March.

AT&T began offering U-verse Internet customers the choice of a free Xbox 360, Kindle Fire, Nexus 7 Tablet or Sonos Play 3 media player if they add its U-verse TV or voice service to their subscriptions.

The move, announced Monday, could drive standalone broadband customers to take AT&T's pay TV service, which hasn't grown as quickly as U-verse Internet. AT&T picked up 192,000 U-verse TV and 609,000 U-verse Internet subscribers in the fourth quarter, and now counts 4.5 million subscription video and 7.7 million broadband customers.

Plenty of cable subscribers grouse about their ever-escalating monthly bills — but only about one-third of them actually try to finagle a better deal from their provider. About 44% of the bargainers reported savings of up to $50 per month — and 7% claimed they lopped off more than $50.

Nearly a half-dozen tax proposals affecting Internet operations are expected to appear on the congressional agenda, with many of them affecting broadband and cable services. No action is expected until closer to November of 2014, when the current moratorium expires. Cable-industry groups support the measure.

Brief discussion followed.
